For the purpose of this tariff, an ADAD is defined as any automatic equipment, which has the capability of storing telephone numbers to be called, or a random or sequential number generator capable of producing numbers to be called, alone or used in conjunction with other equipment to convey a pre-recorded or synthesized voice message to the telephone number called.

ADD (automatic dialing device) is defined as any automatic equipment which has the capability of storing telephone numbers to be called, or a random or sequential number generator capable of producing numbers to be called. ADDs include facsimile machines and predictive dialers. An ADD is often used by an operator delivering a live voice message. For the purpose of this tariff, solicitation is defined as the selling or promoting of a product or service, or the soliciting of money or money's worth, whether directly or indirectly and whether on behalf of another party.

(a) Use of ADADs for purposes of Solicitation

The use of ADADs to make unsolicited calls for the purpose of solicitation is prohibited.

Prohibited ADAD calls include calls made to solicit on behalf of a charity, the use of ADAD messages to request that a called party hold until an operator is available (when the purpose of the call is to solicit), activities such as radio station promotions, or ADAD calls referring the called party to a 900 or 976 Service-number.

If the Company had a customer who resold Centrex, it is the Resellers responsibility to make sure the end-user does not employ the service to transmit unsolicited ADAD calls other than those made for public service reasons.

(b) Use of ADADs for purposes other than solicitation

The use of ADADs to make unsolicited calls for purposes other than solicitation (herein referred to as permitted unsolicited calls) are subject to the following conditions:

EXCEPTION: These conditions do not apply to calls made for public service reasons including calls made for emergency and administration purposes by police and fire departments, schools, hospitals or similar organizations.
